NUMBER 80.

SOME OF THE FACTS

THUS MUCH PAIN IS SAVED.

This Has Reference to the Horribly Mutilated Bodies.

THEY ARE GROUND INTO PULP.

Captain Sigbee Very Significantly Remarks That It Should Be Remembered They Are In the Tropics.

Havana, Feb. 25.—Captain Sigbee says friends of the dead sailors of the Maine should remember that they are in the tropics.

There are circumstances which, if they could be made known, would end appeals for bodies to be sent home.

These circumstances have been withheld mainly through a desire to save friends and relatives from the pain which would be caused by a full disclosure of the effect of the explosion.

The press reports have given in part the terrible mutilation of the bodies, but it is feared this has not been fully realized by friends and relatives.

The men were sleeping on the berth deck, with metal floors and ceilings, which, by the force of the terrific explosion, were ground together into a confused mass.

Knowing this, there is little hope that many of the bodies still missing will be found, or, if found, that they will be in a condition to be sent to the United States.

No Unusual Activity.

Philadelphia, Feb. 25.—Notwithstanding all reports to the contrary, there is no unusual activity at the navy yard beyond the extensive improvements that are being made to the back channel, which is to be used as a freshwater basin for vessels of the navy. The receiving ship Richmond is besieged daily by applicants for enlistment, but very few are being taken. Besides the Minneapolis, there are now at League Island the cruiser Columbia, the monitor Miantonomah and the ram Katahdin, all out of commission at present. There are also eight old monitors at the yard, all of them relics of the civil war, but which could be fitted up quickly in case they were needed.

No Information Given Out.

Havana, Feb. 25.—Neither the officers of the court of inquiry nor the witnesses will give the slightest indication of the testimony or the conclusions deducible from it, and all say that the men employed on the wreck have been warned to observe an equally strict reticence. This course is regarded as eminently wise by the American and all intelligent Spanish officials, as there is no telling what passions might be aroused or what evil results might be brought about by talking freely on official matters in the present state of public feeling in Havana.

De Lome Heard From.

Queenstown, Feb. 25.—Senor De Lome, formerly Spanish minister at Washington, who was a passenger on the White Star steamer Britannic from New York, which touched here at 7 p. m. on her way to Liverpool, was interviewed with reference to the disaster to the United States warship Maine in Havana harbor. Senor De Lome said he could only repeat his expressions of deep regret, and that he knew it was quite impossible for Spaniards to view it in any other light. Spaniards, he declared, wanted peace and not war.

Inquiring About River Craft.

Cincinnati, Feb. 25.—Wharfmaster Robert Schmidt received a telegram from the war department at Washington as to the packets and towboats arriving and leaving this harbor. The message asks that the names of all boats entering and leaving be forwarded, together with the names of the companies to which said boats belong. They also ask for the amount of tonnage and number of passengers each boat would be able to carry, the rates for freight, and also passenger rates.

May Return to Havana.

Havana, Feb. 25.—The session of the court of inquiry was devoted to taking the testimony of two civilians, Americans, who saw the explosion from the deck of the Ward line steamer City of Washington, that was moored a few hundred yards from the Maine, and of two divers who have been at work on the wreck for several days. It is believed the court will return to Havana after hearing the Key West witnesses, but no official confirmation of this report can be obtained.

Dispatches From Sigbee.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The navy department received two brief telegrams from Captain Sigbee at Havana. One related to some routine matter of expenditures in connection with the work on the Maine, and the other is as follows: "Divers report more bodies in wreck. Some in hammocks involved in debris; probably not recognizable."

Application For a Pension.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Harriet Adams of this city, the dependent mother of J. T. Adams, a coalpasser who lost his life on the Maine, has filed an application for a pension. This is the first pension claim filed in connection with the loss of life on the vessel.

Only Waiting For Facts.

Washington, Feb. 25.—President McKinley stated that he was only waiting for a complete report of the naval board of inquiry, and that should it report that our sailors had met their death through Spanish treachery he was prepared to act at once, and in a manner which would meet the approval of every loyal American citizen.

No Truth in the Story.

Havana, Feb. 25.—Consul General Lee says there is no truth in the report that he had asked Captain General Blanco to dismiss from Cuba certain newspaper men for sending sensational stories to the United States. On the contrary, General Lee has never interfered with the American newspaper men in any way.

Spanish Theory Untenable.

Havana, Feb. 25.—The further the Maine investigation progresses the more untenable becomes the theory which the Spanish government adduced to show the accidental cause. It is evident the Spanish case will be based on the claim that a fire preceded the explosion.

Outside Evidence to Be Offered.

Havana, Feb. 25.—Captain Simpson and his colleagues of the naval board may have outside evidence offered regarding a torpedo boat producing the explosion. Three Cuban spies claim to have positive knowledge of a mine in the harbor and that it was exploded from the palace.

Relief For Maine Victims.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Representative Boutelle of Maine, chairman of the house committee on naval affairs, introduced a bill providing for the relief of the victims of the United States battleship Maine. It follows generally the lines of the Samoan disaster relief bill of 1890.

All Except One Improving.

Havana, Feb. 25.—Chaplain Childwick reports that all the wounded sailors of the Maine here are doing well except Frederick Cholser of New York, who may die at any moment.

Will Not Precipitate War.

Washington, Feb. 25.—President McKinley says he does not intend to precipitate war; that the situation is grave, and that a crisis may be reached at any time.

No Longer Any Doubt.

Havana, Feb. 25.—The 10-inch magazine of the Maine did not explode. There is no longer any doubt that the wreck was caused by exterior force.

The Minneapolis Floated.

Philadelphia, Feb. 25.—The United States cruiser Minneapolis was successfully floated out of the dry dock at the League Island navy yard at high tide. The floating of the cruiser was witnessed by nearly 100,000 persons. The Minneapolis has been in dry dock since last December, partly to avoid the ice in the river, and also to have necessary repairs made to her bottom.

Monetary Commission's Plan Urged.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 25.—Robert S. Taylor of the monetary commission spoke at the chamber of commerce. He urged that the plan of the commission was fit to form at once the foundation of a permanent financial system and should be adopted as a whole or in part at first, and by progressive steps to completion.

Pleaded Guilty of Embezzlement.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—William O. Moody, bookkeeper and cashier of Dunlop Brothers, bankers, pleaded guilty to the embezzlement of $26,000 of the funds of the Oak Park Building and Loan association and $2,747 from Dunlop Brothers. He was sentenced to an indeterminate term in the penitentiary.

Von Der Ahe Released.

Pittsburg, Feb. 25.—Late in the afternoon Chris Von der Ahe was released from jail, the Mercantile Trust company giving bond in $4,000. The National league authorized the bond and will indemnify the trust company should the ball be forfeited. Von der Ahe left for St. Louis at 9:30 p. m.

An Injunction Refused.

Topeka, Feb. 25.—Judge John A. Williams, in the United States circuit court, refused to grant a temporary injunction against the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road as a member of the Southwestern Traffic bureau to prevent it from boycotting the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf railroad.

THE MEN TERRORIZED.

Much Damaging Testimony In Sheriff Martin Case.

SOME PERSONS FIRED AT.

Others Were Compelled to March With the Strikers and Threatened With Violence if They Tried to Escape.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 25.—The drift of the testimony in the Sheriff Martin trial was to show that the strikers had terrorized the men who remained at work.

Several witnesses said they had been fired at, struck with clubs and threatened with bodily harm.

One man said he had five shots fired at him as he fled from the gang of strikers.

Oliver Smith related how the strikers captured a man who avoided them and beat him severely. These men then went to their homes and two were given revolvers.

Superintendent Joseph McFarlane of the Jeansville colliery told how the McAdoo strikers had driven out the men there, with many threats and much display of force. Many of the men were compelled to join them. The whole neighborhood, he said, was terrorized.

Allen Frey, manager of the company store at Jeansville, told the same story with some slight variations.

John McFadden, a boss at the Jeansville stripping, said he and his men were surrounded by the strikers and stopped work without any resistance. The strikers then forced them to march along for several miles, guarding each of them closely and threatening them with injury if they tried to escape. Several others gave similar testimony.

On Sept. 2 Samuel Barlow, at McAdoo and Ebervale, saw 200 armed strikers at the breaker flourish their knives and show revolvers. They were boisterous and threatening.

On Sept. 7 they drove the Ebervale men out and attacked the office there, and tried to assault Superintendent John Scott, who was obliged to draw a revolver and protect himself.

DAY IN CONGRESS.

The House Spent the Time on the Sunday Civil Bill.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The house devoted itself strictly to business and disposed of 30 additional pages of the sundry civil appropriation bill.

The fact that the government is preparing for contingencies was recognized in the house, when Chairman Cannon, who has been laboring to keep down appropriations, accepted without a word of protest an amendment to increase the appropriation to care for the unused machinery at the Springfield arsenal. Mr. Gillette explained that necessity for using this machinery might occur at any time.

Resolutions which were objected to a few weeks ago, for the appointment of two ex-naval cadets to positions in the engineer corps of the navy, were also adopted. One of them will fill a vacancy caused by the death of Lieutenant Merritt of the Maine.

The senate bill to prohibit the passage of local or special acts by territorial legislatures and to limit territorial indebtedness was passed.

In the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 25.—A feature of the senate's session was the speech of Mr. Spooner (Wis.) on the right of Henry W. Corbett to a seat in the senate from Oregon under appointment of the governor.

Mr. Spooner made a constitutional argument in favor of seating Mr. Corbett, and had not concluded when the senate adjourned.

An effort was made to obtain consideration of the Alaskan homestead and railway right-of-way bill, but on a parliamentary technicality it went over. The resolution offered by Mr. Allen (Neb.) to appoint a committee of five senators to investigate the Cuban situation was withdrawn by its author.

Two Bills Recommended.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The house committee on coinage, weights and measures agreed to recommend the passage of two administration bills—one diminishing the legal allowance for wastage in the coinage processes in the mints, the other providing for the coinage of so much of the Sherman law bullion as may be necessary to meet the demand for subsidiary coin and for the retirement of such amount of the Sherman notes as now represents the bullion which might be so used.

The President Invited.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Senators Harris of Kansas and Perkins of California, Representatives Simpson, Botkin and Ridgeley of Kansas; Delegate Callahan of Oklahoma and President Craig

Dayton, O., Feb. 25.—W. F. Harper of Jamestown, Greene county, was among the early callers at the office of the probate judge, and made application for a license to wed Miss Minnie M. Miller of Marion, Ind. Mr. Harper expected the arrival of his betrothed on an afternoon train and intended to meet her at the depot and proceed at once to a parsonage. He was greatly nonplused when the license was refused because of the Indiana residence of the lady.

Decision Reversed.

Gallipolis, O., Feb. 25.—Judge Hiram L. Sibley of the circuit court gave the decision in the celebrated Lindsey murder case, which was tried in this county in the common pleas court and resulted in the conviction of John Lindsey for the murder of aged William Cundiff, near Pomeroy. The case was reversed on three grounds of error, impelling the jury, expert testimony and Judge Coultrap's charge to the jury. It will be taken before the supreme court by the attorneys for the state.

Professor Degarmo Selected.

Ithaca, N. Y., Feb. 25.—The board of trustees of Cornell university has elected Charles Degarmo, president of Swarthmore college, Pennsylvania, to the professorship of science and art of education, made vacant by the resignation of Professor S. En Route to China.

New York, Feb. 25.—Among the passengers who arrived on board the North German Lloyd steamer Trave from Bremen was Bishop J. B. Von Auser, whose reports on the German mission stations in China have attracted considerable attention. Bishop Von Auser is passing through this country to assume charge of his work at Shan Tung, China. It is in this section that the Kiau Chou bay district is situated, at which place the German forces are in control.

Not Sighted.

New York, Feb. 25.—The overdue French line steamer La Champagne, from Havre, had not been sighted at noon, though the weather is clear and two steamers have been sighted a considerable distance from Fire Island—the North German Lloyd steamer Trave and the White Star steamer Germanic, both bound in.

Known In New York.

New York, Feb. 25.—Edouard Saporas, who was lost on the steamer Clara Nevada, which went down off the coast of Alaska, came of an excellent New York family and at one time was one of the best known men in this city. He finished his education in Europe and was proficient in several languages.

HIT HIM WITH A CLUB.

Testimony Given In Versailles Lynching Case.

THE MEN ALL WORE MASKS,

But One Prisoner Says He Recognized Three of Them by Their Voices Which They Neglected to Disguise.

Cross Point, Ind., Feb. 25.—There is a large crowd here at the preliminary hearing of infamy Superintendent Hughes, arrested by Governor Mounts as the leader of the mob that lynched five outlaws last September.

Only one witness was examined for the state—Charles Kelley—a boy who was in the Versailles jail at the time of the lynching. He said he knew Harry Andrews, J. H. McCoy and Hez Hughes when they entered the jail and told all to throw up their hands.

Hughes hit Shuter with a club and then put a rope over his head and dragged him out. Hughes came back and told Kelley to remain still as be—Kelley—was not wanted.

McCoy hit Jenkins and dragged him out. McCoy shot Levi, the leader. Kelley said they wore masks, but he recognized their voices.

The relatives of the five victims and over 100 of their friends are here, but the others outnumber them four to one. The relatives will not be able to testify for several days.

Flora, Ind., Feb. 25.—Oliver Davis, a farmer near this place, has a peculiar habit. He never wears an overcoat, coat or vest, no matter how cold the weather may be. No garment protects his man's body above the waist except a single flannel shirt, and in the coldest weather he may be seen coming to town so attired. He perspires perpetually.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1898

Kentucky, partly cloudy weather; not so warm; variable wind.

It begins to look very much like we are going to have a bout with Spain, sure enough. The situation is daily becoming more critical.

It's high time to call a halt on the lynchers when they get to hanging negroes for robbery. What the Mayfield authorities ought to do now is to hang the leaders of this week's mob.

OWNERS of unimproved real estate in Louisville will co-operate in furnishing free sites for manufacturing enterprises. This is a good plan for this class of property owners in other cities to follow.

NEW POINT RAISED.

[Lexington Leader.]

Merrick Lodge No. 31 has filed notice in the Circuit Clerk's office that they will on February 25, at 9 a. m., make application to Judge Parker for an order against ex-Sheriff Ed. T. Gross restraining him from selling their property to collect State and county taxes, claimed to be due him for 1896-97.

Ex-Sheriff Gross was seen in regard to this suit. He claims that he has settled with the State for these taxes, amounting to about $1,300, and is only taking the usual method of getting back his money. The property consists of the corner Main and Broadway, occupied by Brower & Co., and the magnificent temple at Short and Limestone, total valuation, $80,000.

Mr. Richard Arnsperger, who has charge of the affairs of the Merrick Lodge, claims that the order of Oddfellows is a charitable and benevolent society, the revenue derived from these buildings go entirely for such purposes, hence the claim of exemption.

The attorneys of the lodge are Messrs. Breckinridge & Shelby and E. L. Hutchinson. They have very carefully examined the law and the recent decisions of the Court of Appeals in the case appealed from the city of Henderson on a similar case, and the cases of certain schools in Louisville, whose positions are analogous to that of Merrick Lodge.

About a year ago the lodge secured an injunction against the city of Lexington restraining her from collecting brick street and other taxes and no steps have ever been taken to dissolve the same.

A NATIVE OF MAYSVILLE.

[St. Joseph News, February 19th.]

Barton W. Shackelford, who suffered a stroke of paralysis about two months ago, died at the family residence, 622 Bon Ton street, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. At the time Mr. Shackelford was stricken it was known that he could never recover, but everything possible was done to relieve his sufferings and life was prolonged many weeks.

The deceased was a native of Kentucky, having been born at Maysville in 1830, and was therefore sixty-eight years of age. He came to St. Joseph in 1882 and with his estimable wife has made his home with his son, Frank H. Shackelford. He was a man of strong character and great affability, and was much beloved by all who knew him.

The early years of his life were devoted to the mercantile business in Indiana, to which State he removed at an early age, in which he was very successful; but which he was forced to abandon many years ago because of failing health. Mr. Shackelford was a grandson of Barton Stone, prominent in Kentucky in the early days.

Besides the widow, the deceased is survived by two sons, Frank H. Shackelford of this city and Warren B. Shackelford of Webb County, Mo. Warren Shackelford was not present when death came, but will probably reach the city to-night or to-morrow morning.

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store.

TOBACCO IN DEMAND.

Short Crop Has Put Prices Up Unusually High—The Outlook Bright.

[Louisville Commercial.]

The local tobacco market, taken as a whole since January 1, 1898, has been the most remarkable in the history of the trade. All grades of tobacco have risen in value, until at the present time a hogshead of burley will bring from two to three times as much as the same quality of tobacco brought this time last year.

There are very few grades that do not now sell at least twice as high as they did at the corresponding time in 1897. These extremely high prices are due to two causes, the shortage of the 1897 crop and the anxiety of the manufacturers to seize all in sight and be prepared for the expected shortage.

The 1897 crop was the smallest marketed. Tobacco men variously estimate it at from 45 to 65 per cent. of an average crop. Already 32,000 hogsheads, or more than half the crop, have been received at the warehouses, and the question is confronting the tobacco men, "Will the crop hold out?"

The manufacturers are keenly alive to the situation. Anything and everything possessing the slightest merit is quickly seized by them as soon as put up on the breaks. In common with most of the tobacco men, they expect the present crop to run out about the middle of May, and after that time very little will be found in the Louisville or the Cincinnati markets.

The tobacco bought now is being stored away in the manufacturers' warehouses to be used during the summer after the present crop has been exhausted and before the new crop is ready for the market.

On February 12 one hogshead of 1897 crop of Spencer County tobacco sold on the Louisville breaks for $26.40 per hundred. This was a clear, bright wrapper of beautiful texture and uniform, quite as good as any shown on the market. High as was the price paid for this hogshead, it will probably be beaten before the close of the season.

This is the general opinion. One prominent tobacco man said that there was no chance of the market going back, and everything pointed to a decided increase in prices during the next few months.

The 1898 crop will in all probability be the largest ever produced in the State. The farmers are all tobacco mad. They have gone wild over the high prices received for the 1897 crop, and have determined to put all their available ground in tobacco.

The plant beds are just now being put out. Between May 20 and June 15 the crop will be planted. From present indications, with a good season, the 1898 crop will be very large. This, of course, will have a natural tendency to depreciate prices.

Should this be the case, the prices at the close of this year will not be nearly as high as they are now. The foreign trade, which has not been doing anything so far on account of the extremely high prices, will then pick up. Dark tobaccos will have a more ready sale, as most of them are bought for foreign shipments.

Should the manufacturers become convinced of a good crop this season, the high prices for which the present crop is selling might be affected. Just now the speculators are competing with the manufacturers to raise the price of 1897 tobacco. A very high market is practically assured until the middle of May. During the summer there will be very little done in either the Louisville or Cincinnati breaks.

What the fall will bring forth is at present problematical. If there is a good season there will probably be a large crop and lower prices. A bad season will mean a short crop and a very high market.

COSTLY ECONOMY.

Ex-Governor Morton's Experience With Fires.

[New York Journal.]

In trying to save $300 annually in insurance premiums ex-Gov. Levi P. Morton lost $100,000. On Wednesday there was $250,000 insurance on the Nassau Chambers Building at 114 and 116 Nassau street, which has been owned by the ex-Governor for five years. Last Thursday $100,000 of the insurance expired, and it was decided to cancel it. On Friday, within twenty-four hours of the time when the cancellation took effect, the Nassau Chambers was ablaze, and before midnight had been practically destroyed. The insurance adjusters evidently value the building at $300,000, because one of them said that the actual loss to the owner would not be over $150,000. Real estate experts, however, rate the structure as worth at least $400,000, which would indicate a loss of fully $250,000, without calculating the loss of rents until a new building is constructed.

It requires the Associated Press to furnish news to any paper that will pay for it.

A rare event. Friday's buyers will profit by one of our most tremendous transactions of the decade. With definite knowledge of all recent ribbon retailing, we pronounce this the ribbon event of '98. It's a really remarkable gathering of more than fifty piece of new fancy ribbons from the foremost makers of Paris, St. Gall and Patterson—entire over-production of fashionable fancies at less than one-half former cost. Never before such a fetching aggregation of the newest fancy stripes, plaids and bordered Taffetas in No. 60, full five inches wide, ribbons worth to 75c., very handsome quality, 19c. the yard.

WANTS A NEW TRIAL,

Does Amos Riggs, Convicted of the Boyds' Murder—Twenty-one Grounds Set Out By Attorneys.

In the Circuit Court yesterday the attorneys for Amos Riggs, who was recently convicted of the murder of the Boyds, filed a motion and grounds for a new trial.

About twenty grounds in all are set forth. The attorneys alleged that the verdict is against the law, the evidence and the instructions of the court. They claim also that the court erred in instructing the jury, and also in refusing to properly instruct the jury and that the court further erred in permitting incompetent evidence to go to the jury.

The court further erred, they allege, in permitting Cora Boyd to testify, as to the alleged previous misconduct of defendant with her.

They also claim that the jury received communications concerning defendant on the case during the adjournments of the court.

Another ground alleged is misconduct of the jury in receiving communications concerning the case by means of public newspapers, and also misconduct on the part of the Sheriff and his deputies in permitting the jury to receive said communications.

Other grounds set forth are that each of the attorneys for the prosecution in arguing the case made statements to the jury which should not have been allowed, and which were objected to.

The motion will come up for a hearing to-morrow morning.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Bill Passed the House to Abolish the State Board of Equalization.

The House yesterday morning passed the bill abolishing the State Board of Equalization. The vote was, yeas sixty-four, nays twenty-seven. It has yet to pass the Senate and the opponents of the bill hope to delay it in that branch so that it will not be reached.

The Goebel election bill was not reported in the House yesterday, and a vote on it will not be reached till to-day.

STRAWBERRIES.

The Crop at Chattanooga Will Be Much Larger Than Last Year.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., Feb. 23.—The Chattanooga district is one of the main strawberry producing sections of the South, and from present indications the crop this year will be exceedingly heavy. Conservative growers say that this season's crop will be much greater than that of 1897. They expect to ship at least 150,000 crates, and say that this number will be doubled within another year on account of the increased acreage. The recent cold weather will delay the blooming of the plants until after the later frosts.

Last season the fruit growers of this section were credited with having shipped 100,000 crates of strawberries to the northern and eastern markets. The greater part of the fruit was shipped to Baltimore, Washington, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Chicago and New York.

COMMITTEE'S APPEAL.

Maysville Property Owners Asked to Aid Washington Fire Company—Subscriptions to Date.

The following is self-explanatory:
To the Property Owners and Citizens of Maysville:
On Sunday morning, January 30th, the Washington Fire Company lost by fire their home together with the opera house upon which they depended for their support and upon which our citizens depended for an amusement hall. In the destruction of the building there went up in smoke and flame the hard earnings of the company, covering a period of forty-eight years and amounting to over $12,000. They are now without shelter and without a single dollar—nothing left save their honor. The firemen of our city have always been faithful to duty in saving your property, and upon many occasions have saved our city from total destruction. It is now proposed, and due time, to rebuild their home, and for this purpose a subscription has been started and a liberal amount secured. Will you be one to assist in this effort by a subscription? Respectfully,
THOMAS A. DAVIS,
ALEX. CALHOUN,
J. D. DYE,
WM. H. COX,
HOBACE J. COCHRAN.

Every property owner in the city is directly interested in this matter, and a liberal response to this appeal will enable the company to begin the work of rebuilding as soon as spring opens.

If you have not subscribed and desire to do so, send your name either to the BULLETIN or to any of the above committee, stating amount.

CARELESSNESS in girlhood causes the greatest suffering and unhappiness in after life. Little irregularities and weaknesses in girls should be looked after promptly and treatment given at once. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription promotes regularity of all feminine functions, makes strength and builds up a sturdy health with which to meet the trials to come. The Favorite Prescription is not a universal panacea. It is good but for one thing. It is directed solely at one set of organs.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a 1008 page medical work, profusely illustrated, will be sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover postage only. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

The C. and O.'s eastbound express last night was delayed a couple of hours by a freight wreck four miles east of Newport.

In regard to the acquittal of James Bell, the check forger, mentioned yesterday, it is but justice to County Attorney Frank P. O'Donnell to say that he called the attention of the Commonwealth's Attorney to the necessity of proving that the bank on which the check was passed was an incorporated institution, as the indictment alleged.

West Liberty, Ky., Feb. 25.—Matt Grear, one of the most noted moonshiners in Kentucky, is dead. He began operating his little still in this county about 1866, and ran it regularly up to about six months ago. The government officers made it too hot for him. He was compelled to leave, and went to Virginia. He was never captured in his life. There have been many rewards for him.

The Coal You Didn't Order

Is what got for you a cold reception at home. If you want to have "a hot time" at your house twenty-four hours in the day use SEMI-CANNEL COAL. It burns clean and not too fast; throws out a steady, strong heat and holds fire all night. Take a trial order to-morrow—and when you order a load you'll get FULL WEIGHT every time, being one of the things we are very particular about.
